Full text: In plenty of time for Halloween, there are two local costume exchanges happening as part of National Costume Swap Day.

Stop by DIY Studio, 155 Liberty St. NE, Suite 150, 1 to 2:30 p.m. Saturday. Bring costumes and props in good condition, and earn tickets to exchange for other Halloween costume components. This event is free, but RSVP at (971) 208-5869.

Or head to the Children's Activity Room at the Salem Public Library, 585 Liberty St. SE, between 2 to 4 p.m. Saturday. Bring an old costume to swap for something brought in by another family. This event is free and open to children in preschool through middle school. Call (503) 588-6088.

Paul Reiser performs comedy tonight

Comedian Paul Reiser takes the stage at 7 tonight at the Historic Elsinore Theatre, 170 High St. SE.

Although known as the co-creator and star of the TV sitcom "Mad About You," Reiser got his start doing stand-up comedy. He also appeared in Barry Levinson's coming-of-age film "Diner" and the TV sitcom "My Two Dads." As a best-selling author, musician and producer, Reiser's experience spans the genres, but his love for comedy brought him back to stand-up a couple years ago.

Tickets are $27.50 and available online at ticketswest.com/events/paul-reiser/12137/ or at the Elsinore Box Office. For information, call (503) 375-3574 or go to ravensflightcreative.com.

Ignite Salem 5 returns with people's passions

After a three-year hiatus, "Ignite Salem 5" returns 7 to 10 tonight to Northern Lights Theatre Pub, 3893 Commercial St. SE.

The event aims to share the interests and passions of 17 speakers who will share five-minute presentations featuring 20 slides shown for 15 seconds each. Cost is $3. For information, call (503) 551-2818.
